

Non Conference Training Committee Board Report – April 2009

The NCTC will have met our goals and objectives for the 2008-09 academic year at the conclusion of the annual conference. Our major initiative for non-conference training has been to host a year-long webinar series. Our theme for the year is “Self-Assessment for Optimum Compliance”. All of the webinar materials have been posted to the VASFAA website listed under the training section.

The topic for each webinar in the series is listed below. The final presentation will be held at the conference to “wrap-up” and bring closure to this series.
